

International Academy for Security Management Training

Protection of Sensitive Information Workshop

Introduction

This one-day programme provides a solid overview of the management processes involved and the measures necessary to counter various types of information loss.

Who should attend

This workshop is designed for both security professionals and those from other disciplines responsible for protecting the information asset.

Course Content

- Creating a comprehensive information security programme
- Threat sources and collection methods
- Conducting an information security vulnerability analysis
- Defining intellectual property
- Methods for classifying information
- The effect of information leaks on product life cycles
- Allocation of information security responsibilities
- Identifying and countering suspected information brokering activity
- Using outside agencies in support of information security and information leak investigating
- Technical surveillance countermeasures

Course Outcomes

Successful completion of this workshop will enable delegates to:

- Differentiate between information security and IT security
- Define what is meant by the term business espionage
- Use a range of criteria to determine the value of specific information
- Identify the main types of information
- Identify the key threats and threat sources to information
- Describe the activities of information brokers
- Classify and protect sensitive information in accordance with information security best principles
- Differentiate between the terms trade secret, proprietary information, intellectual property, copyright, registered trademark and patent
- Evaluate a range of options to deal with a suspected information thief

Venue

Oxford Spire Four Pillars Hotel - if required, we can arrange a special bed & breakfast rate at the training venue.

Accredited by Skills for Security, the UK skills and standards setting body for the Security Business Sector

Please contact us for further information or click here to register
Precept Management Consultancy, P.O. Box 255, P.C. 112, Sultanate of Oman
Tel: +968 24497123, Fax: +968 24497222, E-mail: precept@omantel.net.om
Website: www.preceptmanagement.com